RE: CPRA Request to examine California Department of State records regarding voter registration and voter fraud

Dear Public Records Act Coordinator:

Under the California Public Records Act, pursuant to Code Section 7920, et seq. ("CPRA"), the American Center for Law and Justice (ACLJ)¹ requests certain records regarding voter registration.

For purposes of this Request, and unless otherwise indicated, the timeframe of records requested herein is November 4, 2024, through the date of receipt of this Request. All terms used herein have the definitions given by the CPRA.

The ACLJ requests copies of the following records be provided via email:

1. Records showing the number of voter registration records cancelled because the registrant did not satisfy the citizenship requirements for voter registration, excluding the personal identifiers of private individuals whose registrations were cancelled.
2. All records concerning the implementation of programs and activities conducted for the purpose of ensuring the accuracy and currency of official lists of eligible voters.
3. All records containing or addressing policies for handling information received through the Election Voter Complaint form.

¹ The ACLJ is a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to the defense of constitutional liberties secured by law. The ACLJ regularly monitors governmental activity concerning abortion and works to inform the public of such affairs. The ACLJ and its global affiliated organizations are committed to ensuring governmental accountability and the ongoing viability of freedom and liberty in the United States and around the world.

4. All records containing the outcomes or final determinations of investigations regarding illegal voting, excluding the personal identifiers of private individuals investigated.

Conclusion

If this Request is denied in whole or in part, ACLJ requests that, within the time requirements imposed by CPRA, the custodian agency support all denials by reference to specific CPRA exemptions and provide any statutorily or judicially required explanatory information.

If there are any fees for searching or copying these records, please inform the ACLJ if the cost will exceed $500. However, the ACLJ respectfully requests a waiver of all fees because the disclosure of the requested information is in the public interest. The ACLJ will disseminate the records requested to the public via multiple media platforms and, as such, the records are requested for news gathering purposes. This information is not being sought for commercial purposes.
