RE: FOIA Request pertaining to the FBI, the FBI National Academy and the term “State of Palestine.”

Dear Mr. Seidel:

This letter is a request (“Request”) in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”), 5 U.S.C. § 552, and the corresponding department/agency implementing regulations.

The Request is made by the American Center for Law and Justice (“ACLJ”)<sup>1</sup> on behalf of its supporters.

To summarize, this Request seeks records pertaining to the FBI’s use of the term “State of Palestine” at the FBI National Academy.

BACKGROUND

Pursuant to DOJ FOIA regulation 28 C.F.R. §16.3(b), this Background addresses “the date, title or name, author, recipient, subject matter of the record[s]” requested, to the extent known.

<sup>1</sup> The ACLJ is a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to the defense of constitutional liberties secured by law. The ACLJ regularly monitors governmental activity and works to inform the public of such affairs. The ACLJ and its global affiliated organizations are committed to ensuring governmental accountability and the ongoing viability of freedom and liberty in the United States and around the world.

The FBI National Academy is a 10-week professional course of study for U.S. and international law enforcement managers nominated by their agency heads.<sup>2</sup>

Leaders and managers of state, local, county, tribal, military, federal, and international law enforcement agencies attend the FBI National Academy. Participation is by invitation-only through a nomination process.<sup>3</sup>

Part of the National Academy is the International Partnership Program (IPP). This provides students an opportunity to network on a one-on-one basis with our international partners.<sup>4</sup> Domestic students who sign up to be an IPP member will be paired with an international student.<sup>5</sup>

One international student who attended was Husam Abu Aisha. According to the FBI National Academy Associates Facebook page, Husam is from “Palestine.”<sup>6</sup> Furthermore, at the National Academy graduation, Husam was presented with his diploma from FBI Director Chris Wray and was introduced as from “Ramallah, the State of Palestine.”<sup>7</sup> The United States does not officially recognize the “State of Palestine.”<sup>8</sup> Additionally, there were no foreign students from Israel in the program.<sup>9</sup>
