

January 7, 2019

The Honorable Marsha Blackburn
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Blackburn,

Congratulations on being elected to serve in the United States Senate. It is an impressive achievement, an honor that should be taken seriously, and a duty that must be carried out with integrity. We desire to assist you as you uphold your oath to defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies foreign and domestic.

By way of introduction, the American Center for Law & Justice is an organization dedicated to the defense of constitutional liberties as secured by law. ACLJ attorneys have argued before the Supreme Court of the United States and other federal and state courts in a number of significant cases involving the freedoms of speech and religion.

The ACLJ Government Affairs department exists to provide a nexus between our ACLJ members around the globe, the U.S. Government, and international governments and bodies. We are committed to working with Members of Congress and their staff, government agencies, and other interested parties on issues relevant to the work of the ACLJ. We work with our legal teams to shed light on, and advocate for, cases and clients within our portfolio. The ACLJ and its international affiliates, including the European Centre for Law & Justice (ECLJ), are committed to defending human rights and religious liberty around the world.

We look forward to working with you and helping you navigate the waters of government, which can be complex. Please feel free to reach out to us if we can be of assistance. We wish you the very best as you begin this journey.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Jordan Sekulow".

Jordan Sekulow
Executive Director

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Thann Bennett".

Thann Bennett
Director of Government Affairs

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "David Fonseca".

David Fonseca
Deputy Director of Government Affairs

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Paul Archuleta".

Paul Archuleta
Deputy Director of Government Affairs

*

