

From Amoon, Shahzad, Ahsan

Greetings in the glorious name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Dear brother Shaheryar,

I had thought that this time I would talk to you after I get out of prison. Not only talk to you briefly, but a lot. But, since it hasn't become possible, I decided to write you this letter to thank you. Not only you, but I want to thank your entire team, including Sunil, Khurram, Augustine [members of the OLA team], and others whom I have not been able to meet.

I thank all of you from the bottom of my heart. Brother Sunil has always taken care of all of our needs, whether big or small. He has gone out of his way to help us, and I thank God for you brothers. You all have always supported Huma[Amoon's wife], and she is also thankful to God and you all. I pray that one day God would also allow Huma and me to help those who are persecuted.

I wanted to especially thank you for sending the mug (tumbler) for Alena [Amoon's niece]. She is very happy. You have done a lot for us; and I'm very happy.

Please tell Mr. Jeff and his family that I am very happy and impressed by the letters they send us. Even my own relatives, who live close by, don't remember me like that. I get comforted in the Lord by their prayers and letters. I pray that soon God will allow me to be able to talk to all of you face to face. A few days ago, I told Huma to safely keep all the letters and drawings sent by Emmaline and Jack [Jeff's children] so that, one day when the Lord gives us freedom, we will frame those letters and display them at our house. I love children and hopefully these two will become my friends one day.

Both Shahzad and Ahsan also send their regards. Brother Sunil takes very good care of all of us. You are very lucky that God has given you such a loyal team. By God's grace, even in poverty we are spending time in prison like someone who has a lot of value. Other Christians who are imprisoned with us also praise your team because of your care for us.

When I get released from prison, I have three requests for you:

1. I would need a keyboard to play the hymns I have written in prison.
2. Some of my teeth have gone bad due to cavities and I have difficulty eating food. I would need help with some treatment.
3. Due to my imprisonment, I have become indebted to someone for 1,60,000 Rupees ($577). If possible, I request some help in getting that paid off.

May the Lord abundantly bless you. Amen.

Amoon
