RE: Request for Records Relating to Hiring and Employment of Christina Calce

Dear FOIA Officer:

INTRODUCTION

Empower Oversight Whistleblowers & Research (“Empower Oversight”) is a nonpartisan, nonprofit educational organization dedicated to enhancing independent oversight of government and corporate wrongdoing. We work to help insiders safely and legally report waste, fraud, abuse, corruption, and misconduct to the proper authorities, and seek to hold those authorities accountable to act on such reports by, among other means, publishing information concerning the same.

BACKGROUND

According to her profiles in Legistorm and LinkedIn, Ms. Christina Calce was employed by the House Energy and Commerce Committee, Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee, as an Oversight Counsel from June 2017 to July 2018; the Senate Judiciary Committee as an Oversight Counsel from July 2018 to July 2020; the Democratic National Committee as a Senior Research Manager from July 2020 to May 2021; and the Department of Justice (DOJ) in its Office of Legislative Affairs, first as Chief of Staff and Senior Counsel and then as Deputy Assistant Attorney General, from May 2021 to January 2023.<sup>1</sup> No other employment is listed on her profiles for the June 2017 through May 2021 period. Her Legistorm profile advises that her annual pay for her Senate and House positions in fiscal years 2018 through 2020 ranged from $71,451 to $95,888.

According to Federal Elections Commission (“FEC”) data, in August, September, and October of 2020, Ms. Calce made eight political contributions totaling $75,304.38 to the Democratic National Committee (“DNC”), the Biden Victory Fund, and Biden for President.<sup>2</sup> While employed by the DNC, records indicate that she made $50,000 in political contributions on August 1, 2020:

- $19,400 to the DNC,
- $25,000 to the Biden Victory Fund, and
- $5,600 to Biden for President, Id.

The records also show that on September 16, 2020, she contributed $152.19 to the Biden Victory Fund and $152.19 to the Democratic National Committee. Id. And, on October 19, 2020, she contributed $12,500 to the Biden Victory Fund and $12,500 to the Democratic National Committee. Id.

While serving in high-level positions in DOJ’s Office of Legislative Affairs from May 2021 to January 2023, Ms. Calce was in a position to oversee requests members of Congress and congressional committees sent to DOJ and its components, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation (“FBI”). While she served in that position, Representative Jim Jordan, then Ranking Member of the House Committee on the Judiciary sent a letter dated September 19, 2022, to FBI Director Christopher Wray asking for information concerning FBI whistleblower allegations that “the FBI is deliberately manipulating the way case files related to January 6 investigations are maintained in order to create a false and misleading narrative that domestic violent extremism is increasing around the country.”<sup>3</sup> Furthermore, Representative Jordan has issued a press release that “President Joe Biden ‘was excited ... to go after parents’ with the FBI after receiving the National School Boards Association letter asking his administration to treat concerned parents as ‘domestic terrorists’ and use the Patriot Act...”<sup>4</sup>

Most recently, Ms. Calce has gone from working for DOJ to working as the Chief Counsel for Oversight - Democratic Staff of the House Judiciary Committee with oversight over DOJ.<sup>5</sup> In that capacity, she is working on matters involving these same FBI whistleblowers in which she was presumably involved at DOJ.

Considering these reports about the Biden Administration possibly misusing the FBI for political purposes and Ms. Calce’s political contributions to President Biden’s campaign and the DNC which represented a substantial portion of her reported income at the time, there is a public interest in records that would shed light on the circumstances of her hiring by DOJ and actions that she took regarding questions from members of Congress about possible misuse of the FBI for political purposes.

It is further in the public interest to shed light on Ms. Calce’s possible conflicts of interest since she has switched sides from DOJ to the House Judiciary Committee and has been involved in cases of FBI whistleblowers whose information was reported to DOJ components when she held a high-level position at DOJ’s Office of Legislative Affairs. This public interest is heightened by the fact that while Ms. Calce was serving on the minority staff of the committee, they released a staff report disclosing confidential whistleblower testimony without the committee’s authorization.
