

Because of their “Partner for democracy” status, members of the Palestinian Legislative Council delegation are entitled to speak in the Assembly (article 64-5 of the Rules of Procedure), to take part in committee meetings (article 64-6), to submit proposals concerning the agenda (article 64-6), to sign motions for resolutions and recommendations and written declarations (article 64-6), and to participate in the work of political groups (article 64-6).

The status of “Partner for democracy” requires the fulfillment of several conditions, which are not met by the Palestinian Legislative Council, such as embracing the values of the Council of Europe, abolishing capital punishment, and organizing free and fair elections (article 64-2).

For this reason, we invite you to suspend or withdraw the “Partner for Democracy” status of the Palestinian Legislative Council. To do this, a resolution must be voted on by the Assembly, based on a report from the Committee on Political Affairs and Democracy (article 64-7).

This should be debated as early as tomorrow’s current affairs debate on October 11.

Sincerely yours,
